

An Interactive Session between officials of the Centre International de Mathématiques Pures et Appliquées (CIMPA) along with a team of delegates & Khalisani Mahavidyalaya (College)

CIMPA, or the Centre International de Mathématiques Pures et Appliquées, is a UNESCO Category 2 center founded in 1978 and based in Nice, France. It focuses on promoting mathematical research and training, especially in developing countries worldwide.

Venue : Khalisani Mahavidyalaya (College), Khalisani, Chandannagar, Hooghly, West Bengal, India

Date : 8th February, 2026

Speakers :

Dr. Nicolas Bedaride, Professor, Aix Marseille University, France, CIMPA REPRESENTATIVE

Dr. Dan Popovici, Professor, University of Toulouse, France, External Coordinator of the CIMPA RESEARCH SCHOOL

Dr. Arindam Bhattacharyya, Professor, Department of Mathematics, Jadavpur University, Internal Coordinator of the CIMPA RESEARCH SCHOOL

Dr. Subhas Mondal, Professor and Head of the Department of Mathematics, Jadavpur University