Enlightenment through Education

Notice No. 36/Jan

Date: 29/01/2024

Following the press release issued by NAAC and published on the UGC website on January 27, 2024, it has come to our attention that NAAC's accreditation process for Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) nationwide has undergone a significant overhaul. The introduction of a binary accreditation system (either accredited or not accredited) and a maturity-based graded system aims to incentivize accredited institutions to continually enhance their standards.

According to the press release, institutions applying for or have applied for NAAC evaluation in the next four months will have the flexibility to choose between the existing process and the new binary accreditation methodology. In light of this development, the undersigned is convening an urgent meeting to gather opinions from IQAC members regarding the crucial decision of selecting one of the options along with other related matters outlined in the aforementioned press release.

Date of Meeting: 30/01/2024

Time: 1 pm

Venue: IQAC room

Agenda: Press release dated 27th January on the issue of major reform in accreditation of HEI.
